

Jenny Goldberg

Jenny Goldberg is a Senior Consultant with Aly Sterling Philanthropy, based in Maumee. Jenny offers a diverse background in strategic fundraising, public and media relations as well as nearly 10 years experience in working or volunteering in the nonprofit sector. Most recently, Jenny successfully managed multiple capital campaigns for Toledo-based ProMedica Health System.

With Aly Sterling Philanthropy, Jenny has the opportunity to work a range of diverse nonprofit clients of various size and sectors assisting them with improving their fundraising strategy, donor relations and gift cultivation, team effectiveness, and overall infrastructure planning. Jenny serves as presenter on fundraising topics for The Center for Nonprofit Resources and is a member of the 2011 Class of Leadership Toledo.

Jenny is a Toledo native, a graduate of the University of Toledo and received training from the Center on Philanthropy at the Indiana University. Throughout the years Jenny has served and continues to serve on a many boards and committees with local organizations that include the Sight Center of Northwest Ohio, March of Dimes, Down Syndrome Association of Greater Toledo, the Arts Commission of Greater Toledo, Ronald McDonald House and The Cullen Center at Toledo Children's Hospital.

Jenny lives in Waterville, Ohio with her family.

Aly Sterling Philanthropy is a full-service fundraising and board governance firm, specializing in building sustainable fundraising solutions for non-profits. "Sustainable" is a key component to our philosophy and practices as we believe organizations have both the desire and ability to create authentic and manageable systems that result in a continuous cycle of donor engagement and transformational gifts. Learn more about us on-line at www.alysterling.com