

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Press Contact: Terri McCullough
419.206.6372

terri @alysterling.com
www.alysterling.com

Aly Sterling Philanthropy Welcomes Jenny Goldberg to Their Team

MAUMEE, OH—June 1, 2010 Aly Sterling Philanthropy, located in Maumee, Ohio, has hired Jenny Goldberg of Waterville, Ohio as a Senior Consultant.

Goldberg offers a diverse background in strategic fundraising, public/media relations as well as nearly 10 years experience in working or volunteering in the non-profit sector. Most recently, Goldberg successfully managed multiple capital campaigns for a leading non-profit health system. Goldberg brings with her extensive training from the Center on Philanthropy at the Indiana University.

Throughout the years Goldberg has served and continues to serve on a many boards and committees with local organizations that include March of Dimes, Down Syndrome Association of Greater Toledo, Ronald McDonald House and The Cullen Center at Toledo Children’s Hospital.

“We’re elated to add Jenny to our growing team of professionals. Jenny’s enthusiasm for the non-profit sector, combined with her comprehensive experience will deepen our current client partnerships and allow us to meet the growing needs of even more non-profits throughout the communities we serve.”

Aly Sterling Philanthropy is committed to building a team with the experience and expertise to assist non-profits who seek to raise more funds, build stronger boards and ultimately, become high-impact organizations. To find out more about Aly Sterling Philanthropy’s products and services, please visit their web site, www.alysterling.com.

Aly Sterling Philanthropy :: a fundraising consulting firm dedicated to building sustainable fundraising solutions for non-profits.

###

Please note: a high-res photo of Ms. Goldberg is available upon request. Thank you.